

Inauguration of Symbiosis Community College - Paud

The Symbiosis Community College, Paud was inaugurated by Ms. Swati Mujumdar, Principal of the college, on September 26th. She spoke on the importance of such colleges in today's world. She also said that the college was a means to provide education to the underprivileged generating means of employment for them later on. She emphasized on job-oriented courses which will uplift the life of rural students. She defined the concept of Community College and future plans of Symbiosis Community College for benefit of the society.

---

Inauguration of Symbiosis Community College – Maan

After the successful setup of the Symbiosis Community College at Paud, another centre of the college was opened at Maan in Mulshi taluka on Saturday, 28th November, 2009, by Ms. Swati Mujumdar, Principal of the college. She spoke on the importance of Community College in today's world and highlighted that the community college aims at training the underprivileged and the disadvantaged, especially those from rural areas, in job-oriented skill-based courses. Ms. Swati Mujumdar said that the major focus would be on training rural women in soft skills and functional English language proficiency. She also said that the community college would be of immense benefit to women and youngsters from villages in the Mulshi and Maval talukas of Pune district.

