

Greeting! PGDID Students (Diploma completed)

Instructional Designer:

Job position- 1

Job Description:

- To study content and design, develop, and review instructional materials (blueprints and storyboards) in line with the proposed instructional and visual approach.
- To peer-review instructional design blueprints and storyboards for different types of E-learning solutions.
- To carry out scheduling and monitoring for instructional design tasks performed by self and Associate Instructional Designer(s) for a specific project
- To provide guidance to Associate Instructional Designers
- To create storyboards in line with the proposed instructional and visual approach.
- To clearly interpret client-supplied storyboards.
- To ensure that output pages communicate the desired learning message.
 - (i) To research and study content.

 - (ii) To compile / collate content and restructure and rewrite it as needed.

Location: Warje (Pune)

Contact Person: dhawalshri.golekar@upsidelearning.com

Company Profile: Upside Learning is one of the fastest growing e-Learning companies in India. Upside Learning, with a strong customer base, is poised to sustain the current growth or even better it. Please go through our website www.upsidelearning.com to know more about us. Upside Learning provides e-learning services in content and technology solutions to its clients. Its key offerings include custom content development and flagship products UpsideLMS, and Assessment Engine.